Over three-weeks this summer, The Philadelphia Orchestra teams up with The Mann Center for the Performing Arts to present eight riveting concerts at the ideal spot for alfresco performances.

Beginning on Tuesday, June 24, The Philadelphia Orchestra accompanies musical acts — and movies — of all sort. The summer music series is the perfect opportunity to enjoy the music of the acclaimed musical group while taking full advantage of summertime events.

First up, the Ben Folds Orchestral Experience calls on the talented members of The Philadelphia Orchestra to accompany his pop and rock songs.

Once mid-July hits, enjoy movie screenings of three films — Gladiator, West Side Story and Star Trek Into Darkness — as The Philadelphia Orchestra performs each film’s score live as each film plays on the big screen.

Admission to both the Gospel Meets Symphony concert on July 19 and the People’s Choice concert on August 1 is completely free. Other performances vary in cost, but all promise affordable seating options.

Concert attendees are encouraged to pack a picnic for all Philadelphia Orchestra concerts at The Mann.

The full list of Philadelphia Orchestra performances at the Mann is available below.
